RE: Yours of 3/1/96
1995 Year-End Report
(7/1/95-12/31/95)

Dear Ms. Barkley:

Enclosed please find our previously filed reply on the previously requested same issue. Please -- can't you do something to resolve this? I feel as if I am talking into a void. This committee is essentially inactive, it has no paid staff, and I serve on a (very) part time, volunteer basis. I do not have the time or resources to answer the same question again and again.

Please reply to this answer, to let me know if anything further is required. Since my last letter was accepted with no reply, I drew the obvious conclusion that my explanation was satisfactory. As I mentioned in that letter, if further searching of storage archives is required, this will require some doing, so it would be preferable if you could locate the original permission in your (hopefully, more accessible) files. As you can verify for yourself, our reports in this format have been filed, and accepted by the Commission, for nigh on a decade now.

Please also tell me if nothing further is required, so I can be assured that the matter is closed this time. I will appreciate your assistance.

Sincerely yours,

Katherine Jenkins

RE: Yours of 9/15/95
Mid-Year Report (1/95-6/95)

Dear Ms. Shaw:

I presume there is some mistake, since the form we are using for our Schedules B and C (as well as Schedule A, when that is part of the report) was approved many, many years ago, and we have been using the same forms unchanged since that time.

Unfortunately it was so long ago, that our copy of the Commission's approval letter is buried in rather old files in storage, and difficult to retrieve. Hopefully, Commission files can be accessed more easily. You might also look at our past reports, going back to 1988, for example -- again, the form goes back farther than that, but our older reports are also in storage. That is the oldest year that I have positively confirmed, based on readily accessible files, for which the form was already in use.

Please let me know if any further search is necessary (for example, if your file copy of the approval letter is as buried as mine).

Sincerely yours,

Katherine Jenkins

Any amendment or clarification should be filed with the Federal Election Commission. If you need assistance, please feel free to contact me on our toll-free number, (800) 424-9530. My local number is (202) 219-3580.

Sincerely,
