RE: Mid-Year Report (01/01/99-06/30/99)

Dear Ms. Denny:

In response to your December 16, 1999 follow-up letter regarding the administrative expenses of Common Sense Common Solutions PAC, the PAC filed its Statement of Organization in May but did not officially begin fundraising until June. Most of the expenses discussed in your December 16, 1999 letter will be reflected in the next report which covers the period 7/1/99-12/31/99.

If after reviewing the year-end report you have additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Barbara W. Bonfiglio
Treasurer

Reference: Mid-Year Report (1/1/99-6/30/99)

Dear Ms. Bonfiglio:

On November 24, 1999, you were notified that a review of the above-referenced report(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your November 29, 1999 response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

-In your response you state that your committee "pays no salaries, only consulting fees, legal fees, and expenditures for consultants traveling on behalf of the committee." In addition, you indicate that your committee rents no office space and that business expenses are covered by the consulting and legal fees. However, your report discloses no such expenditures. Please clarify this discrepancy. If expenses have been incurred but not paid in a reporting period, the activity should be disclosed as a debt on Schedule D, if the obligation is $500 or more, or outstanding for sixty days or more.

If this information is not received by the Commission within fifteen (15) days from the date of this notice, the Commission may choose to initiate audit or legal enforcement action.

If you should have any questions related to this matter, please contact Lucy Denny on our toll-free number (800) 424-9530 or our local number (202) 694-1130.

Sincerely,
