With regard to your letter dated June 5, 2002, RMF retains a law firm to administer the PAC. The firm's services include record-keeping, check writing, and preparation of the FEC reports. So the retainer includes those normal administrative expenses to which you refer. Also, because all the record-keeping is done by the law firm, including housing the books and other relevant PAC information, the PAC does not need an office. With regard to the contribution to Sen. Cochran, a portion of the contribution has been re-designated to the general election. Finally, the disbursements that should be included on line 29 were changed on a previously amended report for this same period. They are correct on this report as well.
