I am responding to your letter of February 2, 1993 regarding the 30 day post general report for the Pete King for Congress Committee.

Included as an exhibit is the kind of "best effort" letter (see page 3) which I sent to those who have failed to supply information required by the Federal Elections Commission. They were mailed the week of January 11, 1993.

✓ Since the filing of the 30 day post general report, I have received additional information on contributors and amend our report as follows:

(See next 2 Pages)

Contributors who failed to respond to our letter are: John Gannon, Edward Groarke, William Kenny III, Charles Brunie, Louis Fortunoff, George O'Neill, Patrick Donaghy, James Kraft, David Crowe. The following have not responded with their employment information: Irik Steven, Joseph Fogg, Patrick McVeigh, Steven Martello, Bernard Keley, Mary Ellen Buckley, J. Kevin Kenney, Gregory Fossedel, Rachel Sands, Corneluis Sullivan, Christopher Bachelder, Peter O'Neill, Bernard Selz, Warren Dean, Elliot Mayrock, Warren Dean, Jerome Murphy.

Dear Friend,

Thank you for your generous contribution to the Pete King for Congress Committee. Your financial support is critical to the success of the King campaign.

The Federal Elections Commission requires that all campaigns maintain records of contributions and contributors. In the case of contributors, the FEC requires that the campaign maintain a record of the contributor's employer and occupation.

Would you be kind enough to fill out the form below and return it in the enclosed envelope.

Thank you.

Gene Turner
