FEC MISCELLANEOUS TEXT RELATED TO A REPORT, SCHEDULE OR ITEMIZATION

Form/Schedule: F3A
Transaction ID :

For the refunds in question, all original contributions that were required to be itemized were. Carol Bird gave online via Winred. The original contributions that were refunded did not meet the itemization threshold. These were self-generated refunds done via that portal and are not excessive contribution refunds. Nancy Igill gave $965.79 on 5-12-22. That contribution was itemized on the Pre-Primary report on page 489.Yvonne Ligoci made 2 $500 contributions on 5-24-22. They were itemized on Q2 report on pages 272 and 1242.Mary Porter contributed $5000 on 6-3-22. The contribution was split between the Primary and General elections. The $2900 portion was itemized on the Q2 report on page 44.Michael Porter contributed $5000 on 6-3-22. The contribution was split between the Primary and General elections. The $2900 portion was itemized on the Q2 report on page 40.With respect to 48-hour notices, the Committee understands the importance of filing all contributions that meet the criteria. We have in place a process for capturing all that qualify accurately. Joyce Evans contributed $4800. $2900 of the contribution was redesignated to the General 2022 election. When the redesignation was done, the 48-hour report for the period mistakenly only pulled one part of the contribution.The contributions received from Freedoms Defense Fund PAC, Michael Waltz for Congress and the two from Ranger PAC were all received by our committee on 6-7-22. This it outside the 48-hour notice period. There was a simple data entry mistake when capturing this activity. Finally, the committee established a new escrow account during this filing period. Some expenses from that new account were mistakenly not captured on this report. That activity is now included and the public record is complete.
