Re: 12 Day Pre-Runoff Report (10/16/08-11/12/08)

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in response to Mr. Hilland's correspondence of January 13, 2009 regarding the 12 Day Pre-Runoff Report for Chambliss for Senate. We have addressed each item below.

1. Please see the amended pages supporting Schedule A for the amount reported on line 12 of the Detailed Summary Page. We have determined that the five (5) supporting contributors of this transfer did not appear on our original report because of a computer error. There was a software update necessary for these names to report correctly. This problem has been identified and corrected so that it will not recur.

2. Regarding the 48-hour notices for this time period, every effort was made to insure accurate reporting of "last minute" contributions. In fact, of the 3901 contributions received by the Committee during the reporting period in question, we note that only eight 48-hour notices were missed. Our process for receiving and recording "last minute" contributions is detailed below, however, the contributions in question are explained as follows:

   a. Richard Bemis: This was a credit card contribution taken via phone and he requested a faxed receipt of the transaction as well as a copy of the credit card information. This was processed apart from the other credit card contributions and subsequently placed in another file. As a result, this contribution was inadvertently missed on that 48-hour notice.

Paid for by Chambliss for Senate.
Not printed at government expense.

b. Frances Blanchard, Bonnie Duvall, Johnny Irvin, John Kinnett, Robert Shaw, International Pizza Hut PAC: These check contributions were processed and batched together and were the only $1000 or higher contributions of that particular batch. Each "batch" is deposited together and this entire batch was accidently placed in the bank bag to be deposited rather than the folder labeled 48 Hour Notice.

c. Kurt Stuenkel: This was a credit card contribution taken via phone and was inadvertently placed in a folder to be processed rather than the folder labeled 48 Hour Notice.

d. National Right to Work PAC: This $2500 contribution on 10/30/08 was correctly reported on page 6 of the 48 Hour notice received by the Secretary of Senate on 10/31/08.

We have a comprehensive and detailed process by which we make every possible effort to fully comply and report all activity to the Federal Election Commission. We have found this to be an effective way of tracking last minute contributions. Our process for collecting and reporting 48-hour notices is as follows:

Contributions by check: We collect and copy all checks and complete deposit slips, listing every check and amount, on a daily basis. After all deposit slips are completed and batched from the contributions for that day, each deposit is reviewed again to separate those containing contributions of $1000 or more to be placed on the 48-hour notice . The 48-hour notices are then completed and filed in a folder labeled "48-Hour Notice" which is faxed to the Secretary of the Senate at the appropriate time. The deposit slip is then checked off as having been "48 houred" and placed in a bank bag ready for deposit the next day. The check copies are used to enter detailed donor information into our reporting software.

Contributions by credit card: Throughout the day, credit card contributions received via phone, mail or in person are collected and placed in one folder to be manually processed later in the day. Every afternoon all credit card contributions in the folder are totaled and all $1000 or more contributions are placed on top. Those on top are then placed on the 48-hour notice and the completed pages are filed in the "48-Hour Notice" file with the completed 48-hour notices from check contributions for that day to be faxed to the Secretary of the Senate at the appropriate time. After the 48-hour notice is complete, the credit card contribution is placed back in the folder to be processed and batched with the other credit card contributions of that day (those less than $1,000). All credit card contributions are manually entered through the credit card terminal in our office and credit card batches are entered into our reporting software after they are processed and cleared through the terminal.

Contributions via the website: Web contribution notifications are emailed directly to me and our IT staff member throughout the day. Each web contribution notification is printed and totaled daily and placed in a folder for processing with all $1000 or more web contributions being placed on top. Those on top are then placed on the 48-hour notice and the completed pages are filed in the "48-Hour Notice" file with the completed 48-hour notices from the other credit card and check contributions for that day. They are all faxed to the Secretary of the Senate at the appropriate time. All web contributions are automatically processed through our bank and all web contribution notifications for that day are batched and entered into our reporting software.

We have reviewed and discussed these procedures and are confident that our current processes work well for record keeping and disclosure purposes. We have discussed this process with the appropriate staff members to ensure that a breakdown of the system will not happen in the future. In addition, our legal counsel is preparing written guidelines for finance staff reinforcing the importance of proper handling of late contributions for distribution prior to the next 48-hour reporting period. These documents from counsel will be given to new finance staff in the future. Please note that Chambliss for Senate has reported all contributions and disbursements in good faith and by the laws set forth by the FEC.

Additionally, in reviewing this report, we discovered 3 donors with duplicate records. When combining the records, their aggregate contribution to date exceeds the $200, therefore, their contributions now appear on the itemized section – line 11(a)(i). Please see these changes in the attached amendment.

Thank you for your attention in this matter and please call me at 678-589-4888 if you have additional questions regarding this filing.

Sincerely,

Paige Perdue
Finance Director
Chambliss for Senate
