999 E Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Mr. Gibson:

This letter is sent in response to your letter dated November 2, 2000 regarding the late filing of the report for 7/1/00 - 9/30/00. The report due on October 15, 2000 is being sent along with this letter on November 6, 2000. I did know that this report was due and that it was late.

Our office has just completed mailing over 4 million slate cards throughout the State of California and unfortunately, I have not had enough time to get the report finished and sent out. At the end of September, I received several letters from Neil Evans with questions regarding previous reports. I wanted to speak to him regarding these questions prior to filing the October 15th report so I could file the current report in a manner that would be more complete and give enough information. I did speak to Mr. Evans early this month and clarify the problems that are causing the questions so this current report should be complete and easier to understand.

If you need any additional information, please contact me at 310/787-6569.

Thank You.

Sincerely,

LeeAnn Fitzgerald

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is included as an explanation to the report filed for the period 7/1/00 - 9/30/00.

California Voter Guide is a slate mailer organization that contracts with candidates to produce and mail political advertising. When reporting these contributions, they are listed as political party contributions on Schedule A as well as the Summary page. Then a percentage of the cost for production and mailing is reported as an offset to operating expenses on line 15 of the Summary page.

For this reporting period, 80% of the payments received from candidates were listed as an offset to our operating expenses. This percentage takes into account the cost of processing, producing, and mailing the final slate card.

Additionally, during this reporting period, there were no expenses for office overhead. Almost all of the candidates who appear on our slate mailer are state and local candidates and the expenses associated with the maintenance of the office, including personnel and phone service is reported with California's Fair Political Practices Commission. The expenses associated with the small number of Federal candidates are directly related to the mailing and printing of the slate card and will be reported on the next report once the card has been mailed.
