Attn: Brian Buhr, Reports Analysis Division

Reference: July Quarterly Report (05/19/2022 - 06/30/2022)

Dear Brian Buhr:

This letter is in response to the request for additional information, dated July 26, 2022, regarding contributions that did not appear on a 48-hour notice and 48-hour notices that were filed but did not appear on Schedule A.

Regarding Billy Rodolfos, his contribution was reported on a 48-hour notice as being from S.A.R. Construction. Subsequent to filing the 48-hour notice, the Committee received confirmation that S.A.R. Construction was a single member LLC, and therefore the contribution was reported as being from the single member, Billy Rodolfos.

Regarding Judy Cook, the Committee received a $2,900 contribution from Mr. Robert Cook, the spouse of Mrs. Judy Cook. The Committee correctly filed a 48-Hour Report for that contribution, identifying Mr. Cook as the contributor. After filing the 48-Hour Report, but before filing the July Quarterly Report, the Committee timely received reattributions from Mr. Cook and Mrs. Cook, attributing the full $2,900 of that same contribution to Mrs. Cook. The Committee correctly reported the joint contribution, as reattributed, on its July Quarterly Report.

Regarding Paul Silverman, the contributions were not reported on a 48-Hour notice but were reported on the next scheduled report. The committee is revising its procedures to ensure that future contributions are timely disclosed.

Respectfully submitted,
Batya Klein, Treasurer
Josh Gottheimer for Congress
