The Committee received a request for additional information (RFA) dated December 19, 2022, regarding its 30 Day Post-General Report (10/20/2022 - 11/28/2022). The RFAI raises three issues.

1. The Commission noted three apparently excessive contributions. In all three cases, as noted on the report, the Committee took appropriate action to seek reattribution or redesignation of these contributions. Contributions from Peter Kao and Charles McDaniel were reattributed to their spouses. The reattributions were made on December 8, 2022, and reported on the 2022 Year-End Report. The Committee received no response to its request to reattributed Robert Davis' contribution. The Committee has refunded his contribution. The refund will be reported on the 2023 April Quarterly Report.

2. The Commission noted a contribution from an organization not registered with the Commission as a political committee. As noted on its report, the Committee sought confirmation that it could accept this contribution, but did not receive a timely response. As such, the Committee has refunded this contribution. The refund will be reportd on the 2023 April Quarterly Report.

3. The Commission noted that a number of contributions reported on 48-hour notices did not appear on Schedule A of this report. All of the contributions at issue were received by Wittman Victory Committee, a joint fundraising committee authorized by Rep. Wittman. That Committee did not make a distribution during the reporting period so the contributions did not appear as memo entries on Line 12. That Committee has since made a distribution including the net proceeds from these contributions. That distribution and the related contribution memo entries will appear on the 2023 April Quarterly Report.
