Reference: Year End Report (10/1-12/31/23)

Dear Mr. Harkins:

This is in response to the request for additional information dated March 10, 2024.

1. Your letter indicates that the Committee disclosed one or more contributions that appear to exceed the limits set forth in the act. The Committee is aware of the contribution limits. In the case of an individual, if the contribution cannot be presumptively reattributed to a spouse or redesignated to a subsequent election, the Committee either sends a verified reattribution letter or refunds the excessive portion within 60 days of receipt. The Committee sends all presumptive reattribution and redesignation letters within 30 days of receipt and always gives the donor the option of making a change or requesting a refund. When the Committee receives contributions from other political committees that cause an excessive total, the Committee contacts the other political committee and requests a verified redesignation. If this is not received, the Committee issues a refund. The following is a response to each contributor listed in your letter:

Linda Biernacki: The excessive portion was refunded and disclosed on the April Quarterly FEC report.

Merritt B Chastain Jr.: The excessive portion was redesignated to the General Election. This was disclosed on the April Quarterly Report.

Paul Dickson Sr: The excessive portion has been returned via the joint fundraising committee and will be disclosed in the next distribution.

Terry Elston: The excessive portion was refunded and disclosed on the April Quarterly FEC report.

Gerald Forsythe: The excessive portion was refunded and disclosed on the April Quarterly FEC report.

Alan Gindi: The excessive portion was refunded and will be disclosed on the July Quarterly FEC report.

Grady Carlton Jr: The excessive portion has been returned via the joint fundraising committee and will be disclosed in the next distribution.

Roy O Martin III: The excessive portion has been returned via the joint fundraising committee and will be disclosed in the next distribution.

Frank Scott Moran: The excessive portion has been returned via the joint fundraising committee and will be disclosed in the next distribution.

Samoil Oprea: The excessive portion was returned on the 1/31/24 distribution. This was disclosed on the April Quarterly Report.

John Peck Jr: The excessive portion was reattributed to his spouse and refunded. This was disclosed on the April
