Subject: Brian Allen Kramer Greenwood Indiana Form 2 misunderstanding.....

(Removal of my name from list - President)

To Whom It May Concern:

Hello my name is Brian Allen Kramer from Greenwood Indiana. I am writing in regards to my Form 2 submission yesterday. I talked to your information office today and they explained to me more in depth what Form 2 was in the Presidential Candidate form process. I misunderstood the whole thing when filing it out yesterday. I read the whole process wrong online and I just need to withdraw from the presidential list. I appologize for the inconvenience, because I was under the impression from the Form 2 that it was the first thing to do in the process of getting my application of president and starting a campaign together and where I live which is correct on the form. What I did not realize was it was a form that if you have over 5,000 dollars raised in the campaign that's the form you fill out. That's what I learned today from your office. I misunderstood and uncomprehended what I read on the internet about starting to state I was running for president. What the lady on the phone from your office informed me to do since I have not raised any money is to withdrawal my name from the pool of people running for president. Since I did not understand the Form process correctly, I feel for the best interest of the FEC and myself to withdrawal my name from the 2016 presidential list. I hereby declare my name be removed from the presidential candidate list since I misunderstood the form process of the filing. I do not want to run now since I already misunderstood that it was after the campaign got started. I am truly sorry for not being informed in what form I needed to fill out to get started which I thought Form 2 was the form to fill out, but with no money raised it is pointless to fill-out any other forms. Therefore I am withdrawing from the list...

Sincerely,

Brian Kramer
