Dear Ms. Simpson:

I received your mailgram dated August 3, 2000. After Mr. Kim was defeated in the primary election, we closed the campaign office, stopped all activity, and filed a termination report. That report showed a cash balance of $1,224.86. Those funds were distributed to Mr. Kim in partial repayment of loans the candidate made to the campaign. The campaign committee had no other assets and has not engaged in any transactions or activity subsequent to the termination report. In accordance with your guidance from our recent telephone conversation, I understand that no other reports are required to be filed by the Jay Kim for Congress campaign committee.

Thank you very much for your assistance on this matter.

Very truly yours,

Jay Young Brazz
