

4/18/2007

Dear Sirs,

APR 18 2007 11:46
I received your package today concerning my bid to run for president. I have two college degrees, have passed national boards to be a CFP® and have the following designations from the American College; CLU, CASL ChFC. I am of average intelligence. The rules and regulations would take all my time away from campaigning.

Therefore PLEASE remove my name from the candidacy for US President. I will run a write in effort.

Also, please send a letter of acknowledgment that I have been removed and therefore do not have to comply with any rules and regulations from this point forward. Please have some official sign this letter you are sending me. (You can use my email, if a name of sender is included.) Thanks so much, sorry to have caused you any trouble.

Sincerely,

William David Beadles

Dear Treasurer:

Our records show that you have registered an authorized committee of a candidate for federal office. To help your committee understand the election law, we have enclosed several publications.

We offer this assistance to help you avoid any violation of the federal election law (U.S.C. Title 2) or the regulations prescribed by the Federal Election Commission (11 CFR). As treasurer, you are responsible for your committee's compliance with the election law. (See, for example, 2 U.S.C. sections 432(c), (d) and (i) and 11 CFR 102.7(c), 103.3(a) and 104.14(d).) This means that in the event that the Commission brings an enforcement action against your committee, absent unusual circumstances, you will be named as a respondent along with the committee. Moreover, you may be held personally liable if a violation of law occurs and the committee is unable to pay the required penalty.

To further assist you, we have added your name to our mailing list for our monthly publication, the RECORD. If you wish to order additional free subscriptions for other members of your staff, please give us a call (see below).

To receive additional forms and publications, call the Commission's FAXLINE Service--an automated information system that transmits materials directly to your fax machine (See FAXLINE Menu).

If you have any questions, please contact the Information Division at 1/800-424-9530 (press #1, then #3) or 202/694-1100.
