Regarding Issue 2.
Each of the three respective sources has issued a Letter stating that the funds from their Illinois committees were from permissible Individuals that are eligible to contribute to federal campaigns. Namely the donations were made from the personal funds of the individuals, and the individuals are citizens of the United States and have not exceeded their contribution limits during the election cycle. My campaign has verified the names of the individuals supplied for said amounts, have not exceeded limits to my campaign within the G2024 election cycle in which its contributions were received, inclusive of any amounts my committee reported, and the contributing committees received for the amount they contributed to MARTER FOR CONGRESS.
Each of the three named committees which were all registered with the Illinois State Board of Elections and report quarterly, with rules very similar to the FEC for the public to review.
Please see the letters included from each organization verifying the funds contributed were from permissible individuals.

Per the letters received from each of the three Illinois Committees above, we do not believe there was any violation under the Act. These organizations which are not FEC political committees that choose to contribute to my federal committees did (2) demonstrate through a reasonable accounting method that each organization has received sufficient funds subject to the limitations and prohibitions in order to make the contribution.

Sincerely

James T. Marter
