In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Withdrawal or Your Demand Deposit Loan Account

Telephone or write us at the telephone number or address located on the back of this statement.

as soon as you can, if you think your statement or record is wrong or if you need more information. Secure a transfer on the statement or record. We must hear from you no later than 90 days after we sent you the first statement on which the error or problem appeared.

(1) Tell us your name and account number.

(2) Describe the error or the transfer you are asking about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.

(3) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will restrict your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

Your Demand Deposit and Deposit Automatic Withdrawal rights are unaffected.

You remain obligated to pay the parts of your bill not in dispute, but you do not have to pay any amount in dispute during the time it takes to resolve the dispute. During that same time, no action can be taken to collect disputed amounts as delinquent.

A copy of a summary of your rights, a full statement of your rights and our responsibilities under the Federal Fair Credit Billing Act will be sent to you both upon request and in response to a billing error notice.

Your Demand Deposit Loan Account is completed in conjunction with your checking account. Any charges for your checking account will be made to the checking account and they will be the same charges as are made for checking accounts not operated in conjunction with Demand Deposit Loan Accounts. The following information thus applies only to those made in your Demand Deposit Loan Account and of them.

Finance charge on Checking Reserve Line of Credit is computed in the following manner:

Loans are subject to finance charge from the date made. The finance charge is computed on the average daily balance of your account. Average daily balance means the sum of the daily balances of your account during the billing period divided by the number of days in the billing period. Each daily balance is determined by adding to the previous day's balance new loans and other credits increasing it, subtracting finance charges due, a prior billing period and credits for insurance charges, and subtracting all payments and other credits received or made which are applied first to unpaid finance charges, then to credit the charges and then to principal.

Send payments and payments to finance shown on front of statement.

NOTE: Payments received after a use of business which is desired received on the following business day for purposes of crediting your account.
