The Committee responds to the January 24, 2017 RFAI, with response due February 28, 2017, as follows: 1. The report has been amended to include the memo entry on Schedule E. 2. The reports have been amended to include the debt and memo entries on Schedules D and E. 3. The expenditure at issue was for a small voter contact test program. As soon as the Committee was made aware of the dates and cost of the program, it was promptly reported. 4. Due to normal fluctuations in program objectives and budgets, the estimated expenditures reported on the 48-hour reports were never actually spent, and therefore were not included on the respective periodic reports. 5. The original amounts reported for the expenditures at issue were estimated amounts, which, as expected, differed from the final payment amounts included on this report. The dates of public dissemination reported on the original estimates were likewise updated on this report once more accurate information became available. As the Committee has detailed previously, due to the ongoing nature of these expenditures, it is impossible to know in advance how much will be spent with a given vendor, and at precisely what time the communications will be publicly disseminated. The Committee reported the final dates and amounts on this report; in the case of the Infocision Management Corporation expenditures, though two estimates were reported, only a single payment was made, which was included on this report. This amendment also corrects Line 8 calculations on the summary page.
