In response to the 01/22/2024 RFAI in regards to the November 2023 FEC report:

Several conduit contributions that were earmarked through the committee were delayed because of a complicated technical error. This error effected the way fees, data and contributions were handled with our credit card processor, data management consultant and the recipient candidates. The committee caught this error and has instituted new controls to ensure the timely processing of earmarked donations.

The following donations that we have identified as not originally appearing on Schedule B of the November 2023 report have or will appear on the following reports:
