The Bond Senate Victory Committee does not have any payments for rent, salaries, utilities, office equipment/supplies and telephone services. This is a joint fundraising committee and the only expenses incurred by this committee were for fundraising services and expenses associated with fundraising events. The original 30 Day Post General Report disclosed a receipt from the Hunton & Williams partnership. Per the firm's directions at the time, we reported three memo entries for Jim Miller, Joe Stanko and C. King Mallory III. The firm has notified us that they did not provide us with an accurate breakdown list for the firm's contribution. Due to the total number of partners participating in the contribution, there is no need to itemize the partners as memo entries. Their aggregate year-to-date totals are below $200 and do not require itemization. We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

The partners' aggregate year-to-date totals are under $200 for the calendar year and do not require itemization. We felt it necessary to explain why there are no supporting memo entries.
