Funds transferred from the Republican National Committee were not earmarked for any particular program. The expenditures to FP Mailing Solutions were for postage on the postage meter which is used in the office. The expenditures for Donor Direct Mail and Design for Direct Mail were solicitations of contributions for party fundraising. The expenditures for the bus tour were expenses for a Party building event and were not made on behalf of any specifically identified federal candidate. The expenditures for early vote mailers and phone calls included information covering early voting times and locations as opposed to any clearly identified federal candidate. The disbursements on Line 30(b) for Exempt Volunteer Mailings meets the definition of Exempt Party Activities. Payments for these disbursements were made from federally permissible funds. The allocation of salaries and payroll taxes were for employees who do not spend more than 25% of their compensated time on federal elections or federal election activity. Both employees maintain a daily log to account for their work schedule and neither employee has exceeded spending more than 25% of their time on federal activity. The mileage reimbursements were reimbursements to staff members for travel throughout the state. Some of the amounts reimbursed to staff members do not print on the FEC report because the vendors are below the $200 per year itemization level.
