Re: CO0272211--July quarterly report

Dear Mr. Federspiel:

I am writing in response to your letter of August 16 regarding the July quarterly report, specifically missing information regarding occupation and employer.

At the outset, let me inform you that I am currently filing an amended report that provides some, but not all, of the information required.

I believe the committee's procedures fulfill the best efforts requirements of the FEC as follows:

1) In the original mailed solicitation we include a form that asks for name, address, employer and occupation and which includes the mandated language that informs the contributor that the reporting of such information is required by federal law.

2) When we receive a contribution that exceeds $200 we send out a follow up letter, within 30 days, requesting the information and repeating the mandated language. We do not solicit a contribution in this letter. We do include a pre-addressed, postage paid, return envelope with the letter.

3) The information we obtain forms the basis for an amended report, showing Schedule A additions, that we submit with the next scheduled report, or before.

A copy of the relevant documents is enclosed.

Sincerely,

Gene Turner

More than ever before, I need your help.

As your representative in Washington for the last two years, I have been a fighter on the important issues -- crime, taxes, cutting government spending and reforming the disgraceful welfare system. I have made it a top priority to let you know where I stand and to keep you informed of significant developments in the nation's capital. I have worked to make English our official language, to stop Federal funding of Louis Farrakhan and his Nation of Islam henchmen and to protect our region's unique interests.

In recent days, I have been asking high ranking Clinton Administration officials tough questions about Whitewater and taken on those like Congresswoman Maxine Waters and Congressman Henry Gonzalez who are actively working to keep the truth from the American people. In fact, as you probably saw on network newscasts, Maxine Waters erupted and went into a wild tirade against me when my questioning uncovered discrepancies in the testimony of Hillary Rodham Clinton's chief of staff. As she learned, I don't let anyone silence me when I'm fighting for what I believe in.

While I am proud of all that I have been able to accomplish in just two years, my leadership and effectiveness in Washington have made me a target of those with a different agenda. The national Democratic Party has singled me out and will be working overtime to defeat me this year. The Democrats have chosen a liberal candidate who has committed hundreds of thousands of dollars from her personal fortune in an attempt to buy this election. We fully expect her to embrace the extreme views of the liberal Democrats in Congress and be a Nassau County version of Maxine Waters.

Before the general election in November though, I must face a primary election in September. My opponent is a perennial losing candidate who is doing the work of the Democrats. Because of this primary, I will have to use valuable campaign resources in September which I will need in late October and early November.

To turn back these challenges and send a message to those who are wrong on the important issues of our time, I need your help. You may recall that in 1992, I was outspent by more than 4 to 1 by a multi-millionaire from Manhattan. All indications are that this will be a similar campaign. While it is doubtful that I will be able to match my opponents dollar for dollar, I can beat the odds again with the support of good people like you.

Please help me to continue as your representative by returning the form below with a check made payable to the Pete King for Congress Committee. Your contribution will be earmarked specifically for the 1994 re-election effort. Thank you for your support and encouragement and please stay in touch.

All the best.

P.S. With a primary and general election challenge looming, I really need your help.
