This amendment is submitted in response to the Request for Additional Information regarding the committees relationship with the Indiana Democratic Congressional Victory Committee. The Indiana Second District Democrats operates independently from the Indiana Democratic Congressional Victory Committee. The committee was independently established to support Democratic efforts related to the U.S. House race within Indianas Second Congressional District. At this time, the committee does not receive funding, financial support, or operational direction from the Indiana Democratic Congressional Victory Committee or other affiliated committees. The committee raises its own funds independently and operates separately.
