Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Ms. Wall:

Please find enclosed the 07/01/97-12/31/97 FEC report for Republicans for Choice. I apologize for the delay in filing this report, but as I indicated in my 1/29/98 correspondence to you the delay by the FEC in rejecting the 01/01/97-06/30/97 report which resulted in significant changes in the year end report created this delay. Since we are generating manual reports at this time each report requires a significant amount of time to prepare. We make every effort to meet the deadlines imposed by the FEC.

Please also note that we have discovered a problem area in our transfer (from non-federal accounts) procedures which has resulted in a net surplus transfer to the federal account of $670.31 over this six month period (detailed on Schedule H3). Although our procedures have been modified to avoid this type of error, I have not made an adjustment. Could you please provide me with written instructions on the correct way to rectify this error and report it to the FEC's satisfaction so this correction can be made.

FEC continues to make every effort to complete our FEC reports correctly, but despite many requests there have been no training seminars offered by the FEC in this area. Can you tell me if there is anything scheduled at this time?

Thank you in advance for your response to these questions.

Sincerely,

Deborah S. Eversole
