Re: Notice of Write-in Candidacy

Dear Board Members and Staff:

As you are aware I am seeking ballot access for my candidacy. I expect to serve my petition for review tomorrow.

However, in the event I do not make it on the ballot itself I am running as a write-in candidate for United States Senator. Today is the last day to notify you of my write-in candidacy. This letter is my notification.

The Board takes the view that a write-in candidate has to notify all 105 or so electoral jurisdictions in Illinois. I do not believe that position complies with federal law.

Under the Help America Vote Act, the state is supposed to create a central clearinghouse for voter/voting information. In Illinois, it's the State Board of Elections.

Therefore, I believe that under federal law, at least as to federal candidates, it is your obligation to notify any and all electoral jurisdictions in Illinois that I am a write-in candidate for United States Senator.

Please do so at once.

Respectfully submitted,

ANDY MARTIN
