In response to the RFAI received on March 2, 2023 with a due date of April 6, the Committee responds as follows:

The Committee recognizes it did not file a separate 48 hour report in regards to an August 22, 2022 expenditure in the amount of $10,000 opposing Joseph R Biden, Jr for President in 2024. The Committee respects that the FEC is clearly stating for the public record the Commison's position that Joseph R Biden Jr is a candidate for the Presidential election in 2024, and has been since at least 2022, by identifying this Committee's failure to file pursuant to 11 CFR 104.4(b). We're chastened.

The Committee accepts whatever penalty the Commission imposes for failing to timely file a 48-hour report against a clearly identified federal candidate, Joseph R Biden Jr, in the 2024 election.
