SECRETARY OF THE SENATE
04 JUL 13 PM 4:36

Ms. Leah Palmer
Reports Analyst, Oklahoma Senate Campaigns
Federal Election Commission
Washington, D.C. 20463

9 July 2004

Ms. Palmer,

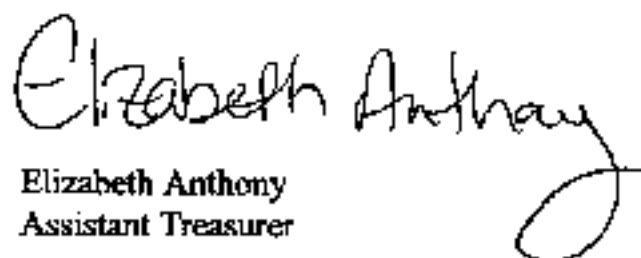

Enclosed please find the required Pre-Primary Election report (comprising 99 pages) for the activities of the Anthony for Senate campaign between April 1 and July 7, 2004.

As with our First Quarter 2004 report, certain contributions itemized on Form 3, Schedule A of this report are herein designated for the runoff election, although all such contributions were solicited and received under the designation "subsequent election" by way of a statement on the contribution form which reads: "By marking this box, each contributor confirms that he/she . . . understands that this contribution will be designated first toward the primary election limit, with any balance designated to the subsequent (runoff and/or general) election fund(s)."

Again, this flexible designation accommodates the fact that in Oklahoma, runoff elections are held between the primary and general elections, and a candidate does not know until the primary votes are counted whether or not he/she will next compete in a runoff or a general election. The "subsequent election" designation gives contributors who wish to support the candidate in whichever of the two elections ultimately follows, the ability to do so without being required to provide a written redesignation of their contribution.

The Anthony for Senate campaign's internal accounting differentiates between contributions necessarily designated specifically for the runoff and contributions designated for the "subsequent election," but both designations have been categorized as "runoff" for the purposes of this report. If however, a runoff election is not necessary, the Anthony for Senate campaign's quarterly report for the Third Quarter 2004 will reflect both the recategorization of the "subsequent election" contributions as general election contributions and the refunding of all funds which are not eligible for recategorization.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Anthony
Assistant Treasurer
