Please accept my thanks for MPAPAC's recent contribution of $500 to my re-election campaign. Your support is very much appreciated.

Although it may appear to be early, we are even now in the process of structuring the campaign plan. There is much to be done, and this donation will certainly be put to good use.

You may be assured that I will continue to do my best to warrant the trust and confidence you have placed in me.

Dear George:

Thank you for making my birthday reception and fundraiser at the Washington Court Hotel a success. We surpassed our goal, raising over $150,000.

As you know, my 1994 re-election campaign will be a very challenging and expensive race. Your financial support will help me acquire the resources necessary to run a successful campaign.

I am glad that so many of my supporters were able to join me at the May 11 event, including Vice President Al Gore, Treasury Secretary Lloyd Bentsen, Majority Leader George Mitchell and Senator Byrd.

Once again, thank you. My best wishes.

Answer
Dear Mr. Gross:

I want to let you know how much I appreciate the Magazine Publishers Association Political Action Committee's kind and generous contribution of $500.00 to my reelection effort.

Raising campaign money is one of the more difficult parts of my life as a Senator. But to wage an effective and winning campaign I must put together a substantial war chest. Your contribution helps me achieve that goal.

I hope my work in the Senate continues to merit your confidence and support in the future.

I am most grateful for your assistance.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Joseph I. Lieberman

SENATOR BOB DOLE
Honorary Chairman

May 6, 1993

Dear George:

I'd like to thank you and the Magazine Publishers Association PAC for the generous contribution to Campaign America. It means a lot to know I have your support.

Now that we've heard President Clinton's message to the Congress and the American people, it is clear Republicans have our work cut out for us. Republicans want to cooperate with President Clinton when we believe he is right. But we must oppose any efforts to lead us into economic ruin.

Your kindness allows Campaign America to support our many fine Republican candidates. Best wishes.
