Due to an inadvertent administrative error, thirteen contributions that were received in this reporting period were not included in the original report. This error was discovered during the routine preparation of the third quarter report and is corrected here. Committee practices have been adjusted to prevent this from occurring in the future. In addition, because of a software feature related to how several split transactions were entered, the original report also contained nine contributions that appear as memo entries that did not tabulate to the summary pages of the report. These contributions were included in the original report and this amendment removes the memo entry designation inserted by the software system, resulting in an accurate tabulation of those contributions.

Form/Schedule: SB23

Due to an inadvertent administrative error in identifying the reportable date of an in-kind contribution, this $250 contribution was omitted from the original report. This error was discovered during the routine preparation of the third quarter report and is corrected here. Committee practices have been adjusted to prevent this from occurring in the future.
