My committee, NEIL J GILLESPIE FOR US SENATE, has raised and spent more than $5,000 by the ending coverage date of the July Quarterly Report due July 15, 2026 (Q2). However I am technologically unable to file via FECfile as described in the accompanying letter to Ms. Mary Seiler, Reports Analysis Division (RAD). I have provided my Receipts and Disbursements in an alternate format, and will coordinate with Ms. Seiler to file ASAP using FECfile.

NEIL J GILLESPIE FOR US SENATE
Committee Id: C00943399

I affirm that Neil J. Gillespie is my legal name. I have both court documents and drivers license that can attest to this. If there is any question, these documents will be provided for verification.

July 15, 2026

Dear Mary Seiler:

Thank you for speaking with me earlier today, and for your email. You clarified that the FEC considers the 2026 election for United States Senator for Florida as a General Election, even though Wikipedia and Ballotpedia show a Special Election for United States Senator for Florida in 2026. Just prior to your phone call, I received an email response from the Florida Division of Elections that states in relevant part:

This election will be a General election (not special) per s. 100.161 and 100.111(1)(a), Florida Statutes.

There were more than 28 months remaining on Sen. Rubio's vacated term and therefore Sen. Moody's appointed term is only through the 2026 general election, at which a person will be elected to fill the remainder of Rubio's term to 1/3/2029. See Art. IV, s. 1 (f), Florida Constitution and 100.111(1)(a), Florida Statutes, which reads:

(1)(a) If any vacancy occurs in any office which is required to be filled pursuant to s. 1(f), Art. IV of the State Constitution and the remainder of the term of such office is 28 months or longer, then at the next general election a person shall be elected to fill the unexpired portion of such term, commencing on the first Tuesday after the first Monday following such general election.

The person elected at the 2028 election will put the terms back on track and that person will serve a full 6 years.

Regarding the July Quarterly Report (Q2), I successfully download FECfile, the FEC's electronic filing software. However I was not able to enter Receipts or Disbursements by selecting the Summary Page view of the report from the toolbar as explained on page 46 of the FecFileManual User Guide 2018. Therefore I called the FEC and briefly spoke with a person, and determined that after opening the Summary Page view, I did not see lines on which to enter the data. The Summary Page view on my computer was blank, no lines, no way to enter data. Because I called shortly before 8:00 PM, the person was unable to continue the call past 8:00 PM. Fine, no problem, will file my data on a Form 99, in order to meet the filing deadline. The person said I should file a proper FECfile report the next day, which is fine, but I will need assistance.

The person with whom I spoke said I may be fined for a late report. Okay, fine, but I am requesting accommodation under the Americans With Disabilities Act for a vision impairment. Currently I am legally blind in my left eye, and scheduled for surgery in August 2026.

As discussed during our phone call, I have been delayed with matters related to my campaign and the hostile legal environment (lawfare) in Florida. Last week learned of a scheme by the Johnson Dalal law firm where it has filed 160 so called "strike lawsuits" under Florida's Security of Communications Act, Fla. Stat. § 934.03(1)(a), alleging "wiretapping" for use of chatbots.

I was arrested twice under this statute, which is unconstitutional because federal law permits one-party consent to record calls ("interception"), see 18 USC § 2511(2)(d). Last time I checked one party consent was the law in 38 states. WPBF 25 News Investigative reporter Terri Parker reviewed court records showing that since July 2025, attorneys representing Broward County plaintiff Yesenia Muniz have filed 160 lawsuits against businesses, alleging their website chatbots violated Florida's Security of Communications Act by recording customer conversations without first obtaining consent. Attached is my email to Ms. Parker, et al.

On Monday, July 13, 2026 it came to my attention that U.S. Judge Kathleen William may have referred Florida attorney Alejandro Brito, Bar # 98442, to The Florida Bar for consideration on whether Brito (President Trump's lawyer) should be disciplined in light of the findings in the new order in Trump v IRS, USDC, SDFL Case No. 1.26-cv-20609 (Anti-Weaponization Fund). My email to The Florida Bar is enclosed, and states in relevant part:

In defense of Mr. Brito, and to offer myself as a substitute plaintiff-intervenor, I submit my response to the Federal Election Commission of June 25, 2025, which PDF is attached, and found on the FEC website, and my blog Neil 2028. Please note I have a claim against the IRS, and a claim against the State of Florida, the DeSantis administration, and the Biden administration, for lawfare, including lawfare involving Fla. Stat. sec. 934.03.

Perhaps President Trump can protect the citizens of Florida from lawfirms like Johnson Dalal, since The Florida Bar does not have jurisdiction. Also see,

RE: Yesenia Muniz v. Cheeseboarder LLC

<https://www.wpbf.com/article/florida-160-lawsuits-website-chats-wiretapping-law/71734255>

Dear Ms. Parker,

Thank you for your excellent reporting June 26, 2026 on the misuse of Florida's Security of Communications Act by the legal profession, including attorney Veronika Balbuzanova, attorney Abdul-Sumi Dalal, and the Johnson Dalal law firm. I am Neil J. Gillespie, a candidate for U.S. Senate.

I was unable to locate the complaint in Muniz v. Cheeseboarder LLC, but I found a similar lawsuit filed by attorney Abdul-Sumi Dalal and the Johnson Dalal law firm, Yesenia Muniz v. Big Sandy Furniture, Inc. The complaint is attached. Please see paragraphs 16 and 17:

16. Chapter 934 was modeled after the Federal Wiretap Act, 18 U.S.C. section 2510 et seq., as amended by the Electronic Communications Privacy Act of 1986.

17. The FSCA prohibits any person or entity from intercepting, endeavoring to intercept, or procuring any third party to intercept or endeavor to intercept any electronic communication. Fla. Stat. § 934.03(1)(a). It is unlawful to intercept any electronic communication under Florida law "unless all of the parties to the communication have given prior consent to such interception" and to intentionally use or endeavor to use the contents of any electronic communication, knowing or having reason to know that the information was obtained through the interception of an electronic communication. Id. § 934.03(1)(d), (2)(d) (emphasis added).

Section 934 is the two-party consent rule in Florida. However federal law permits one-party consent, see 18 U.S.C. §2511(2)(d), "It shall not be unlawful under this chapter for a person not acting under color of law to intercept a wire, oral, or electronic communication where such person is a party to the communication or where one of the parties to the communication has given prior consent to such interception unless such communication is intercepted for the purpose of committing any criminal or tortious act in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States or of any State." <https://www.law.cornell.edu/uscode/text/18/2511>

You quoted attorney Dave Aronberg in your story: "What will happen is this will continue until enough people get hurt by this," Aronberg said. "Then the Legislature is going to act, and it's going to kill the golden goose."

Actually the U.S. Congress (U.S. Senate and U.S. House) already acted, many years ago, see 18 U.S.C. §2511(2)(d). Under the Supremacy Clause, Section 934 is unconstitutional. "The Supremacy Clause of the Constitution of the United States (Article VI, Clause 2) establishes that the U.S. constitution, federal laws, and treaties override any state laws that conflict with them.[1] It promulgates that all state laws, state courts, and state constitutions are subordinate to the U.S. Constitution and federal laws and treaties made by the U.S. government.[2] https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Supremacy_Clause

Federal law permits one-party consent to record calls [18 USC § 2511(2)(d)]. Last time I checked one party consent was the law in 38 states. Twelve states, including Florida, require two party consent. On its face, two party consent is unconstitutional under the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. The clause, which took effect in 1868, provides that no state shall deny to any person within its jurisdiction "the equal protection of the laws".

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Equal_Protection_Clause

I believe Mr. Aronberg knows this because he is named in my court pleadings, see

<https://www.scribd.com/document/938762954/Notice-of-Prosecutorial-Misconduct-by-State-Attorney-Bill-Gladson>

It appears Mr. Aronberg may not have advised his client, Aaron Menitoff, about this issue.

Also, if the parties sued by attorney Veronika Balbuzanova, attorney Abdul-Sumi Dalal, and the Johnson Dalal law firm, actually violated section 934.03, why were they not arrested? I was arrested twice under section 934.03. Mr. Aronberg, as a former State Attorney, knows people have been arrested under section 934.03.

This is one reason I am running for U.S. Senate. Section 934 is unconstitutional, but is being used by the Florida legal profession to extort money from people like Aaron Mentitoff, and his company Cheeseboarder LLC. Section 934 is also being used as lawfare to arrest people like me.

I profiled your report on my Telephone Recording page.

I plan a filing in federal court by the end of the week. Thanks again for your reporting.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Doyle:

It has come to my attention that Judge Kathleen Williams may have referred Florida attorney Alejandro Brito, Bar # 98442, to The Florida bar for consideration on whether Brito should be disciplined in light of the findings in the new order in Trump v IRS, according to a post by David Oscar Markus on his SDFLA blog <https://sdfla.blogspot.com/2026/07/judge-williams-56-page-order-explaining.html>

In defense of Mr. Brito, and to offer myself as a substitute plaintiff-intervenor, I submit my response to the Federal Election Commission of June 25, 2025, which PDF is attached, and found on the FEC website, and my blog Neil 2028. WRITTEN OBJECTION to the Federal Election Commission, Administrative Termination of NEIL J. GILLESPIE FOR PRESIDENT Campaign Committee

<https://neil2028.blogspot.com/2026/06/written-objection-to-federal-election.html>

See this part:

"I plan to intervene in Trump v IRS, USDC, SDFL Case No. 1.26-cv-20609 (Anti-Weaponization Fund) U.S. Judge Kathleen Williams and Magistrate Judge Enjoliqué Lett presiding.

In Dunn v Trump et al, USCD, District of Columbia Case No. 1.26-cv-01719, U.S. Judge Richard Leon presiding, two Capital Policemen, Harry Dunn and Daniel Hodges, sued over the Anti-Weaponization Fund. Officer Dunn and Officer Hodges have a right to know the FEC failed to act on a legitimate Complaint of Election Fraud in the 2020 Presidential Election.

In Andrew Floyd v DOJ, USDC, Eastern Division Virginia, Case No. 1.26-cv-1399, Plaintiffs Andrew Floyd, Jonathan Caravello, City of New Haven, National Abortion Federation, and Common Cause, contend "The Department of Justice and the Department of Treasury have created a $1.776 billion slush fund—from taxpayer dollars—to dispense payment to those the Trump-Vance administration favors. Since its inception, this fund has been on a collision course with the United States Constitution." No. My complaint shows a lawyer admitted to practice law is an officer of the court, and a member of the judicial branch of government, and constitutionally prohibited from serving as vice president. That means J.D. Vance, as a lawyer admitted to practice, should be removed from office. U.S. Judge Leonie Brinkema and Magistrate Judge Ivan Davis are presiding.

In two other cases, Perkins Coie LLP v DOJ et al, DC Circuit Court of Appeal No. 25-5241, Trial Judge Beryl Howell; USDC, District of Columbia, Case No. 1:25-cv-00716-BAH, and American Bar Association (ABA) v Trump DOJ et al, DC Circuit Court of Appeal No. 25-5128 Trial Judge Amir H. Ali, USDC-District of Columbia Case No. 1.25-cv-01888, each of those cases argue separation of powers prevents President Trump from jurisdiction over lawyers and law firms. The ABA even cites the same case I rely upon: Ex parte Garland, 71 U.S. 333 (1866).

The enclosed Transcript of the CBS News 60 Minutes episode with Scott Pelly, The Rule of Law, May 2, 2025, shows this quote by John Keker:

"John Keker: We don't have to agree on politics but we do have to agree that the legal profession has to protect the rule of law in the United States. Which means lawyers and judges need to be independent from the executive branch. [Yes; see Ex parte Garland, 71 U.S. 333 (1866)]"

This means the executive branch and the legislative branch also need to be independent of lawyers and judges. Ex parte Garland held that lawyers are governed by the judicial branch. But law firms are something different. The enclosed Affidavit of Kenneth L. Marvin of The Florida Bar shows the Bar only regulates lawyers, but not law firms. The affidavit is dated October 7, 2010, during the foreclosure crisis when "foreclosure mill" law firms were taking the homes of Americans without due process. The Florida Bar ignored wrongdoing by foreclosure mills on that basis. President Trump (as the executive) therefore has an oversight duty of law firms. Of course, law firms only want other lawyers to regulate them, lawyers admitted to practice like Joe Biden and Kamala Harris. The latter scheme offends the Constitution of the United States.

I affirm that Neil J. Gillespie is my legal name. I have both court documents and drivers license that can attest to this. If there is any question, these documents will be provided for verification.

Perhaps President Trump can protect the citizens of Florida from lawfirms like Johnson Dalal, and Morgan & Morgan, since The Florida Bar does not have jurisdiction. Also see,

RE: Yesenia Muniz v. Cheeseboarder LLC
<https://www.wpbf.com/article/florida-160-lawsuits-website-chats-wiretapping-law/71734255>

Dear Ms. Parker,

Thank you for your excellent reporting June 26, 2026 on the misuse of Florida's Security of Communications Act by the legal profession, including attorney Veronika Balbuzanova, attorney Abdul-Sumi Dalal, and the Johnson Dalal law firm. I am Neil J. Gillespie, a candidate for U.S. Senate.

I was unable to locate the complaint in Muniz v. Cheeseboarder LLC, but I found a similar lawsuit filed by attorney Abdul-Sumi Dalal and the Johnson Dalal law firm, Yesenia Muniz v. Big Sandy Furniture, Inc. The complaint is attached. Please see paragraphs 16 and 17:

16. Chapter 934 was modeled after the Federal Wiretap Act, 18 U.S.C. section 2510 et seq., as amended by the Electronic Communications Privacy Act of 1986.

17. The FSCA prohibits any person or entity from intercepting, endeavoring to intercept, or procuring any third party to intercept or endeavor to intercept any electronic communication. Fla. Stat. § 934.03(1)(a). It is unlawful to intercept any electronic communication under Florida law "unless all of the parties to the communication have given prior consent to such interception" and to intentionally use or endeavor to use the contents of any electronic communication, knowing or having reason to know that the information was obtained through the interception of an electronic communication. Id. § 934.03(1)(d), (2)(d) (emphasis added).

Section 934 is the two-party consent rule in Florida. However federal law permits one-party consent, see 18 U.S.C. §2511(2)(d), "It shall not be unlawful under this chapter for a person not acting under color of law to intercept a wire, oral, or electronic communication where such person is a party to the communication or where one of the parties to the communication has given prior consent to such interception unless such communication is intercepted for the purpose of committing any criminal or tortious act in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States or of any State."

You quoted attorney Dave Aronberg in your story: "What will happen is this will continue until enough people get hurt by this," Aronberg said. "Then the Legislature is going to act, and it's going to kill the golden goose."

Actually the U.S. Congress (U.S. Senate and U.S. House) already acted, many years ago, see 18 U.S.C. §2511(2)(d). Under the Supremacy Clause, Section 934 is unconstitutional. "The Supremacy Clause of the Constitution of the United States (Article VI, Clause 2) establishes that the U.S. constitution, federal laws, and treaties override any state laws that conflict with them.[1] It promulgates that all state laws, state courts, and state constitutions are subordinate to the U.S. Constitution and federal laws and treaties made by the U.S. government.[2] https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Supremacy_Clause

Federal law permits one-party consent to record calls [18 USC § 2511(2)(d)]. Last time I checked one party consent was the law in 38 states. Twelve states, including Florida, require two party consent. On its face, two party consent is unconstitutional under the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. The clause, which took effect in 1868, provides that no state shall deny to any person within its jurisdiction "the equal protection of the laws".

I believe Mr. Aronberg knows this because he is named in my court pleadings, see <https://wings4sarah.blogspot.com/>

It appears Mr. Aronberg may not have advised his client, Aaron Menitoff, about this issue.

Also, if the parties sued by attorney Veronika Balbuzanova, attorney Abdul-Sumi Dalal, and the Johnson Dalal law firm, actually violated section 934.03, why were they not arrested? I was arrested twice under section 934.03. Mr. Aronberg, as a former State Attorney, knows people have been arrested under section 934.03.

This is one reason I am running for U.S. Senate. Section 934 is unconstitutional, but is being used by the Florida legal profession to extort money from people like Aaron Mentitoff, and his company Cheeseboarder LLC. Section 934 is also being used as lawfare to arrest people like me.

I profiled your report on my Telephone Recording page.

I plan a filing in federal court by the end of the week. Thanks again for your reporting.

Sincerely,
