To whom this may concern, that, I., PAMELA ROCKER am NOT recognized as ever being married at the local state level in the State of Ohio. My statement of candidacy with fec.gov i do take very seriously and take pride that I can participate in a fair election process in america & to not knowingly falsify any forms. Simply by, refusing to add my name change to a marriage certificate makes me Ms. Pamela D. Rocker instead of Mrs. Pamela Danelle Rocker. which I was under the impression through no fault of my own, even pleading with county officials in good faith, way, way before my separation/departure from my ex-husband. I have always been under the impression that it changed automatically like most trans women from Ohio especially when they allow my State Drivers License & birth certificate with the exception of being petty 1 more time allowing the name change to take affect on my Official birth certificate but, the gender marker (M) or (F) .. however, permitted the gender marker on the DRIVERS LICENSE to change smh again.go figure. This is a stereotypical way for little boys & girls in school to be teased about there gender identity & there unique way to express themselves In edition, adult trans women running for public office constantly dealing with oppressive ways that undermine our freedom of identity, or individuality.
