Re: Qualification for U. S. Senator

Dear Ms. Roberts:

I have submitted my qualification papers to run as a candidate for U. S. Senator in the Republican Party primary.

I have had to make changes to the Division's forms because the forms and Florida law do not comply with the U. S. Constitution.

The case law in this area is clear and unequivocal: Florida may not impose additional restrictions on a candidate for federal office, see Schaefer v. Townsend, 215 F.3rd 1031 (9th Cir. 2000); Campbell v. Davidson, 233 F.3rd 1229 (10th Cir. 2000). Both of these cases deal with the precise same issue as my own submissions raise.

Therefore, I believe I am entitled to have my name placed on the ballot. I assume you may need to receive an opinion from the Attorney General to do this. Perhaps not.

I would appreciate it if you respond to me by fax, to expedite my response to your decision. If you decide not to place my name on the ballot, then I will file suit in Leon County to seek a writ directing my name to be placed on the ballot. Obviously, if you can obtain a satisfactory ruling from the AG and we avoid a lawsuit I would prefer that approach.

Again, due to the urgency of resolving the matter I would appreciate it if you contacted me by phone and fax.

Thank you for your consideration and cooperation. I realize your office only enforces the law, but when the law is wrong, it is error to enforce it. The constitutionality of a statute is an issue that may be raised by executive, as well as judicial, officers. I think the cited cases and the cases cited in them are clear beyond the point of argument.

Respectfully submitted,
