Reason for amendment. In response to FEC letter dated June 21, 2006, we discovered that the H1 ratio was inadvertently set at 100% federal, instead of our standard 55% federal. This amendment corrects that problem . *****
 Please be advised that amounts of $35,013.94; $24,688.05 and $18,943.43 were returned to the collecting agents for lack of proper documentation. These receipts were originally deposited in our account and disclosed as unitemized receipts in our 2005 mid-year report. The refunds listed above are disclosed on Line 28a of this disclosure report. Also, a total of $13,229.95 was returned to the collection agent on January 23, 2006 for lack of proper documentation. These receipts were originally deposited in our account and disclosed as unitemized receipts in this (our 2005 year-end) disclosure report. The $13,229.95 amount will be disclosed on Line 28a in our next report. Additionally, a total $79.51 was refunded to our non-federal PAC account to cover 45% of our Line 15 entries in this disclosure report. That check was cut on 01/26/06 and will be disclosed in our next report.
