Dear Mr. Krajanowski:

John J. Corry, Candidate 10/14/00

This letter is in response to your filing of a Mid-Year Report, rather than a July 15 Quarterly Report. Your reports on file with the Commission disclose that your committee has received contributions of greater than $5,000 for elections scheduled in calendar year 2000. Thus, based on our records, your candidate has met the definition of a candidate for Federal office and therefore the Principal Campaign Committee is required to file quarterly reports in calendar year 2000. This reporting requirement is in effect for the entire year and is not based on whether the candidate's name appeared on a ballot in this calendar year. Your next report to be filed is the October 15 Quarterly Report which is required to be filed by October 15, 2000.

The Commission has initiated an Administrative Fines Program for assessing civil money penalties for violations involving late and nonfiling of reports. Late or nonfiling of the October Quarterly Report could lead to an assessment of a civil money penalty under the Administrative Fines Program.

If you have any questions please call Barry Conway on our toll-free number at (800) 424-9530 (at the prompt press 1, then press 2 to reach the Reports Analysis Division). Our local number is (202) 694-1130.

Sincerely,

James A. Pehrkon
Staff Director

Federal Election Commission
