

December 11, 2006

Mr. Michael H. Hartsock
Federal Election Commission
Reports Analysis Division
999 E Street, NW
Washington, DC 20463

Re: Request for Additional Information (Amended Yr-End Report, 7/01 - 12/31/2005)

Dear Mr. Hartsock:

This is in response to the Federal Election Commission's analysis of Americans Against Illegal Immigration's Amended Year-End 2005 FEC Disclosure Report and your request for additional information concerning that report. Your letter raises the following issues:

1. The amended report discloses additional receipts totaling $83,571.85 on Lines 11(a)(ii), 13 and 15 of the Detailed Summary Page that were not disclosed on the original report;
2. The amended report discloses additional disbursements totaling $75,764.62 on Line 21(b) of the Detailed Summary Page that were not disclosed on the original report;
3. The amended report discloses additional debts totaling $98,715.26 on Line 10 of the Summary Page that were not disclosed on the original report; and
4. The report discloses limited payments for administrative expenses.

Americans Against Illegal Immigration (AAIL) had great difficulty utilizing the FECfile software needed to electronically file its Disclosure Reports, as stated in the Committee's letter to the Federal Election Commission, dated January 31, 2006. Further, a lack of familiarity with some of the accounting issues involved, resulted in an under reporting of receipts and disbursements.

We have corrected this problem by hiring a professional who is experienced in filing FEC Disclosure Reports. To this end, we are committed to filing timely and accurate reports. Despite the fact that many committee's ignore the requirement to file outstanding debts on their disclosure reports, we are dedicated to accurately reporting our financial position. For that reason we included the outstanding debts of $98,715.26 on our amended report.

AAIL has neither an office nor a connected organization. The Committee is primarily run by volunteers with the exception of a paid Executive Director. As a result, the administrative expenses are kept to a minimum.

I trust that this response will satisfy the Commissions request for additional information. Please contact me should you require anything further.

Sincerely,

John W. Leuthold
