To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is in response to the RFAI dated 4/2/23 regarding the amended April Quarterly report for the period ending 3/31/22.

The increase in receipts totaling $12,361.76 was from mostly from contributions made through a direct mail company for $1385, along with an $8000 refund from the company. At the time of filing the report on 4/15/22 I did not have access to the donor spreadsheets and bank account activity from the direct mail company because the links they sent to me had expired. I was able to get the donor spreadsheets and bank activity and I amended the report originally on 5/6/22. In addition, there were two in-kind contributions from the candidate totaling $2976.76 that I was not aware of at the time of filing on 4/15/22. These were added in on the amendment I filed on 5/6/22.

The increase in disbursements reported was due to the addition of several expenses, both large and small. On 4/15/22 I was filing for six other campaigns, and I quickly began to run out of time as the 9:00pm filing deadline approached. I elected to finish filing for the other campaigns first since I was able to file complete reports for them. Then as time ran down I entered as many expenses as I could and filed my report at the last possible minute. In the next few weeks I was able to finish entering all the expenses, and I filed an amended report on 5/6/22. The total amount of expenditures did not change from the 5/6 report to the amendment received on 7/18/22.

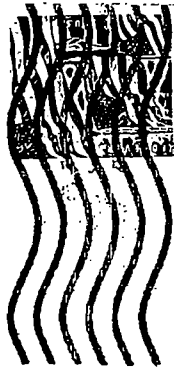

Sincerely,

Tom Perry
