GRAMM
PRESIDENT

MEMORANDUM TO THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

The Phil Gramm for President, Inc. second and third quarter FEC reports for 1995 contained a Schedule C-P and a Schedule C-1. With guidance from the FEC Reports Analyst assigned to the campaign, this memorandum of explanation is submitted to clarify why those forms are not included with this fourth quarter report.

In May of 1995, the campaign established a Certificate of Deposit (CD) for $ 100,000 with Franklin National Bank. This CD served as collateral for a $ 100,000 Line of Credit with Franklin National Bank, which, in turn, provided the guarantee for a $ 100,000 Letter of Credit issued by Franklin on the campaign's behalf to American Airlines. The $ 100,000 was included in the campaign's reported totals for Debts and Obligations.

In December of 1995, the campaign made a deposit payment of $ 75,000 to American Airlines. As a result, American Airlines no longer requires the Letter of Credit. Franklin National Bank then terminated the Line of Credit, and released the CD as collateral.

No draw in any amount against the Letter of Credit was made by American Airlines. As of 12/31/95, there exists no Line of Credit and no Letter of Credit.
