This Form 99 is in response to your request for additional information dated December 21, 2022.

Regarding the Committee’s July Quarterly Report: The committee was made aware of in-kind contributions from the Primary and General election that had not been previously reported. The report was amended to reflect both the Primary and General election inkinds. The committee corrected the July report to ensure this information was disclosed as soon as it became aware. Please note, these were non-monetary contributions and therefore were not deposited into the campaign bank account, resulting in no impact on cash on hand.

Regarding the Committee’s October Quarterly Report: The qualifying contribution from Mark Akeson was an inkind contribution that went unreported during the 48 hour reporting period. It was due to a data entry processing error that has since been rectified. The committee now has systems in place to address this error for future reports. This contribution from Andrew Brutlad was reported, however the amount was incorrect due to a data entry error.
