To: Robin Kelly, Federal Election Commission

From: Tom Clements, former candidate for U.S. Senate in South Carolina

As has been advised to you by Ms. Frances Close, who was treasurer for the Clement for Senate campaign, the campaign has been terminated in all respects.

Given that the post office box has also been closed and the forwarding of mail to that box will only be good for about six more months, I am providing you with my home address in the event you need to communicate further with me. I request that you make this the current of address of record.
