Dear Sir/Madam:

Re: C00252064

Enclosed is a copy of my letter to you January 29, 1997, seeking permission to close my account. As I have heard nothing to the contrary from you, I have today written a check to Safeplace for the balance of my account and am hereby closing out the Account Number C00252064.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Jolene Unsoeld

Dear Sir/Madam:

Re: C00252064

I would very much like to close the books for the Unsoeld Campaign and file my final FEC report. However, there are five checks issued by the Committee which have never been cashed by the recipients.

The campaign has expended all other remaining income and would like permission from the Federal Election Commission to make a charitable contribution in the amount of these checks ($243) and proceed to file the final report.

The uncashed checks are as follows:

08/12/92	City of Longview (Yardisgn Deposit)	$55.00
08/22/92	Walikiakum County (Absentee Vtr. Lst)	15.00
11/17/92	Bit by Bit (Computer Repair)	73.00
12/31/94	Glenda Guerri (Refund of Contribution)	50.00
12/31/94	Paula Goodwin (Refund of Contribution)	50.00

The refund checks to Glenda Guerri and Paula Goodwin were issued because their contributions were received after the 1994 election, the last active campaign for this committee and one for which no debt existed which would have permitted the receipt of their initial contributions. Follow-up letters along with reissued checks were sent to all of the above in June of 1996, asking them to cash the checks so that the account could be closed. Unfortunately, the checks still have not been cashed.

Thank you for your cooperation to help me close this account.

Sincerely,

Jolene Unsoeld
