Today, the Committee filed a series of amendments. The amendments address issues raised by the Commission in letters dated January 11, 2026, regarding the 2025 July Quarterly Report, and April 9, 2026, regarding the 2025 Year-End Report. Addressing these issues required amendments beginning with the 2024 July Quarterly Report.

The Committee's original reports contained several errors regarding loans, debts, and interest earned and paid.

For the 2025 July Quarterly Report, the Commission asked for additional information to explain why the debt payments reported on Schedule D exceeded the debt payments itemized on Schedule B. The debts on Schedule D were interest owed on candidate loans. These debts should have been reported as forgiven by the Candidate rather than paid. When properly reported, the debt will be eliminated on Schedule D as forgiven, and there will be no corresponding debt payments on Schedule B.

In addition to forgiving this debt, the Candidate converted all loans to zero interest. The amended 2025 July Quarterly Report notes the conversion of the loans and all candidate loan interest is removed from April 1, 2025, onward.

While reviewing these issues, the Committee also found that bank interest earned by the Committee from savings accounts was not properly reported. The Committee has filed amendments beginning with the 2024 April Quarterly Report to properly report this income.

For the 2025 Year-End Report, the Commission asked for additional information to explain why Loan Repayments reported on Line 17 were not reflected in a similar increase to the Amount Paid To Date and a decrease to the Loan Balance on Schedule C. The Committee erred in reporting those payments on Line 17. They should have been reported on Line 19(a). The Committee's reporting software automatically updates the amounts reported on Schedule C, but only if the loan repayments are properly reported on Line 19(a). The amendment correctly reports the loan repayments on Line 19(a) and those transactions are reflected properly on Schedule C.
