Please note that this is in process but a way to make a placeholder. Amendments are likely to be filed soon. Thank you to the candidates who have run in 2016, 2020 and 2024, I would have likely been among them. But for malicious activity preventing me from being there starting when I turned 35 years old. Even Derek Stone of labor said I should be President. I hope our local, state, federal and international allies provide a pathway for such. While I am a long term Dem, I appreciate the fostering that has come from republicans at all levels. So my choice of Dems is in part by default. Republicans still have a chance to adopt and elevate me to my appropriate place as among the good politicians of our great nation.
