Re: [Redacted] Americans Socially United - Treasury Case No: 1700787743A

Dear [Redacted],

I send this letter in response to your letter to Americans Socially United ("PAC") on May 5, 2017.

As the former Treasurer and Chief Advisor to PAC I've been forwarded various letters from collection agencies, US Department of Treasury, and your office regarding a balance due for delinquent filing penalty fees.

Last year communication started with your office's committee advisory, online filing support, compliance/legal departments resolve outstanding matters of PAC while it was active between February 2015 and March 2016.

I was advised to file a FEC Form 99 explaining the reasons why the organization was unable to file pursuant to deadlines and the current status of PAC, in addition to the discontinuation of my involvement with PAC as Treasurer and Chief Advisor.

My request is for the necessary requirement to make closure on this issue regarding PAC and update the records with associated parties that are being copied on this letter.

There were numerous attempts to make online filings following correspondence with your IT Support Department [Ms. Green] and it was unsuccessful due to technical errors that were not in accordance with you web software format. Due to the urgency of this issue regarding PAC my firm has enrolled in 2017 FEC Webinar for Candidate Committees on June 7, 2017 in efforts to learn how to use the software, and meanwhile kindly request if it is possible to submit the required filings for PAC manually and submit documents via certified mail.

Your assistance and response to cure this outstanding matter are very much appreciated.

Respectfully,

Cary L. Peterson, LL.D.
