Purpose of Disbursement	Fundraising Consulting
1. Administrative Support: Fundraising consultants often provide administrative support, including managing donor databases, tracking donations, and handling correspondence. This support is essential for the efficient operation of fundraising efforts. 2. Strategy Development: Consultants help organizations develop and implement fundraising strategies. This includes identifying potential donors, creating fundraising campaigns, and determining the most effective channels for reaching donors. 3. Event Management: Many consultants specialize in organizing and managing fundraising events, such as galas, auctions, and charity runs. They handle all aspects of the event, from venue selection and marketing to ticket sales and on-site logistics. 4. Donor Recruitment and Retention: Consultants focus on recruiting new donors and retaining existing ones. They use various techniques, including direct mail, email marketing, and personal outreach, to build and maintain a strong donor base. 5. Financial Reporting and Compliance: Consultants assist organizations in preparing financial reports and ensuring compliance with relevant fundraising regulations. This helps maintain transparency and accountability in the organization's financial activities.	1. Consulting Fees: Fundraising consultants charge fees for their services, which can be structured in several ways. Some charge a flat fee for a specific project, while others charge an hourly rate. Some consultants also offer a percentage of the funds raised as a commission. 2. Event Costs: If the consultant is managing an event, they may incur costs for venue rental, catering, marketing materials, and other event-related expenses. These costs are typically passed on to the organization. 3. Administrative Expenses: Consultants may have administrative expenses, such as office space, utilities, and software licenses, which are also passed on to the organization. 4. Travel and Transportation: Consultants may incur travel and transportation costs when they need to visit the organization or attend events. These costs are typically reimbursed by the organization. 5. Marketing and Promotion: Consultants may have marketing and promotion expenses, such as advertising, public relations, and social media costs, which are also passed on to the organization.
