RE: Santorum 2006
April Quarterly Report (01/01/06 – 03/31/06) Amendment #1

Date: July 28, 2006

Santorum 2006 ("the Committee") is filing today an amended April Quarterly Report for the period covering 01/01/2006 through 03/31/2006 in response to your Request For Additional Information (RFAI) dated June 27, 2006.

In your RFAI dated June 27, 2006, there were certain individuals listed as contributing excess general election contributions on March 31, 2006 through the 2005 Joint Candidate Committee, a joint fundraising committee. Please be advised that Santorum 2006 did not receive excess general election contributions from the referenced individuals through transfers from the joint fundraising committee as suggested in your letter.

In reviewing the facts, apparently there was a software error in the reporting of the transfer, such that the primary election transfer from the joint fundraising committee (and the underlying attributed contributions) was incorrectly coded as a general election transfer/contribution in the Committee's filing software. We have corrected the reporting for the joint fundraising receipts on this amended report.

In addition to your questions regarding the individuals who contributed through the joint fundraising committee (and referred to in the previous paragraph), there were other individuals listed in the RFAI dated June 27, 2006 as having potentially excessive contributions.

Please note we had previously identified certain of these individuals and had already obtained the requisite re-attribution and/or re-designation letters to those donors within the allowable time frame. Copies of the letters are attached.

However, there were twelve other individuals listed in the RFAI dated June 27, 2006 that we have now reviewed individually in order to ascertain the facts and amounts of their contributions for this election cycle.

Santorum 2006 has a formal procedure for reviewing all contributions and donors to insure that no excessive contributions are received. The procedure involves entry of the donor name and address into the donor database as a query to review the permissibility of each contribution. For various reasons, these 12 donors were not identified in our duplicate-donor identification process. The failure of the software program to identify these donors resulted from such things as differing addresses, differing employers, and a misidentification of different contributions from a father and a son, rather than as the same individual. Most of these donors were eligible to contribute through reattribution or redesignation, but since the sixty (60) days have elapsed since the contribution, we have issued refunds to each of these individuals. Enclosed are copies of the refund checks.

Santorum 2006 recognizes that the acceptance of excessive contributions is a serious matter, and we have established and follow a standard and formal procedure for processing contributions to make every effort to ensure that no excessive amounts are received. We believe that the system works well and is normally very efficient and reliable given that we processed over 21,000 contributions during the April reporting period and we maintain records for over 65,000 donors. However, the system is not perfect when some of the information is not identical, which is what happened in these few instances.

In addition, Santorum 2006 was not aware of the affiliation of the two political action committees referenced in the RFAI at the time their contributions were received. However, upon the receipt of the RFAI and review of our donor records, we have issued a refund to one of the political action committees to restore the aggregate total of the affiliated contribution within the allowable limits.

Finally, we have provided additional clarification for certain expenditures as requested in the RFAI dated June 27, 2006.

Please contact our office if you have additional questions. You may speak with the Assistant Treasurer, Alex Barna (phone number).

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Gleason:

Thank you for your generous support and contributions to Santorum 2006. As of February 2005, the Federal Election Commission has increased individual contribution limits to $2,100 for the primary election and $2,100 for the general election for a total of $4,200 per election cycle. As a result of your generous support, Mr. Gleason's most recent contribution of $1,300 has exceeded these limits by $1,300. We therefore request permission from you to attribute the excess contribution to Mrs. Janet Gleason, $100 for the primary election and $1,200 for the general election. With this reattribution, Mr. Gleason has reached his giving limits and Mrs. Gleason has contributed $2,100 to the primary election and $1,200 to the general election.

You are entitled to a refund if you do not wish to have this contribution re-attributed.

Please indicate both you and your spouse's agreement to re-attribute this contribution by signing below and faxing this letter back to me at (610) 825.7031.

Please accept our apologies for any confusion caused. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (610) 825.7030.

Sincerely,

Robert Buckhurt

We confirm that the contributions referenced above were made from a joint banking account and agree to have $1,300 attributed to Mrs. Janet Gleason instead of Mr. Christopher Gleason.

Mr. Juergen F. Mross and Mrs. Renate Mross
210 Creek Drive
Sewickley, PA 15143

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Mross:

Thank you for your generous support and contributions to Santorum 2006. As of February 2005, the Federal Election Commission has increased individual contribution limits to $2,100 for the primary election and $2,100 for the general election for a total of $4,200 per election cycle.

As a result of your generous support, Mr. Mross' most recent contribution of $5,000 has exceeded these limits by $2,300. We therefore request permission from you to attribute the excess contribution to Mrs. Renate Mross, $1,100 for the primary election and $1,200 for the general election. With this reattribution, Mr. Mross has reached his giving limits and Mrs. Mross has contributed $2,100 to the primary election and $1,200 to the general election.

You are entitled to a refund if you do not wish to have this contribution re-attributed.

Please indicate both you and your spouse's agreement to re-attribute this contribution by signing below and faxing this letter back to me at (610) 825.7031.

Please accept our apologies for any confusion caused. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (610) 825.7030.

Sincerely,

Robert Bickham

We confirm that the contributions referenced above were made from a joint banking account and agree to have $2,300 attributed to Mrs. Renate Mross instead of Mr. Juergen Mross.

Mr. Juergen Mross
