> On our 12 day pre-general report, we included, as memo items, charges which were made to our TD Bank credit card during the reporting period (10/1/16 to 10/19/16). However, the payment for these charges was not made until the next report - the 30 day post general report.
We also discovered that the payment made to TD Bank on 11/18/16 in the amount of $13,758.25 was made in advance of receiving the actual credit card bill. The itemized charges were not available until after the close of the reporting period and after the filing due date. Our post general report has been amended to show the credit card detail for this payment.
