Wilson For Congress recently identified inaccuracies and inconsistencies in certain previously filed reports. Upon identifying these issues, the Committee retained an experienced federal campaign finance compliance firm to conduct a comprehensive review and reconciliation of the Committee's financial records and FEC filings.

As a result of that review, the Committee is filing amendments to its previously filed reports to correct transaction classifications, reporting and disclosure information, and other related reporting discrepancies, and to ensure that the reports accurately reflect the Committee's underlying financial records. The Committee has undertaken this review and amendment process in an effort to ensure its reports are complete and accurate.
