There is currently a discrepancy between the actual bank balance of AmSouth PAC and the balance that has been reported to the FEC. The amount noted as 'Bank Correction' on Schedule B (line 28) reflects the current difference in the balances of the report and the actual account. There are a number of factors that have contributed to this error, and they have occurred over a number of years. Most of the discrepancy can be accounted for in checks that were entered into our software system, but failed to show up on the report that was generated. A large majority of these checks were to state and local candidates. The following federal checks were never reported: 7-31-00, The Southern Tribute Fund, $1,000; 2-22-01, Baker for Congress, $500, this check was voided and the void was reported, but the original check was not; 3-30-01, Tallachie Creek PAC, $1,500; 4-2-01, Leadership PAC, $1,000; 4-18-01, Tallachie Creek PAC, $1,000; 5-14-01, Tallachie Creek PAC, $1,000. Also, three checks were reported to the FEC that have never cleared the account: 10-4-00, Alan Bense Campaign, $500; 10-4-00, Gaston Cartens Campaign, $500; and 10-3-01, Charles Bronson Campaign, $500. As I noted above, most of the other checks that were not reported were for state and local candidates. This summarizes most of the problems I have found in a review of the last three years. If more information needs to be provided, please let us know.
