Additional Information for July Quarterly Report (05/19/2022 06/30/2022)

Dear Ms. Seiler:

My firm serves as campaign counsel for the above-named committee. As requested, I write to provide supplemental information regarding certain expenditures reported on the committees July Quarterly report covering the period May 19, 2022 through June 30, 2022.

On Schedule D of the report, there is a negative entry of $3,064.30 for vendor Fiorello Consulting that cancels an expense that was accrued on the prior report for fundraising event expenses. The report contains a note indicating that this expense was accrued on the prior report in error.

The reason the committee disclosed that this expense was accrued in error is not because the vendor provided a credit for a debt owed. Rather, the committee did not owe Fiorello Consulting for any expenses because the event expenses were paid via the campaign credit card. The committee initially misunderstood that vendor Fiorello Consulting would be advancing payment and seeking reimbursement, which is why the committee reported a debt owed to this vendor on the pre-primary report.

We trust this resolves the questions raised by this transaction, but please do not hesitate to contact me should you require further information.

Very truly yours,

OLSON REMCHO LLP
