The Committee recieved a request for further information from the Commission regarding Column B totals for the July Quarterly Report for lines 11(b) and 11 (c). The discrepancy was due to the April Quarterly report which has been amended. - The Committee's established procedure for obtaining Best Efforts is as follows: 1) Original solicitations for fundraising receptions or direct mail solicitation for funds include contribution cards that clearly request and explain that federal law requires us to request and report the required information. 2) At the reception when checks are received, contributors are asked to fill out contribution cards if they haven't already that requests and explains that federal law requires us to request and report the required information. 3) Committee fundraising staff then follows up on contributions that are in excess of $200 by phone monthly with a list provided by the Compliance Department. 4) Finally, every 30 days the Compliance Department sends a letter which includes a pre-addressed, stamped return envelope and forms that clearly asks for the missing information. If information is provided after the reporting period and the contributor will not appear on the next regularly scheduled report; amendments to the report originally disclosing the contribution will be filed. - Also included in this amendment is employer and occupation information that has come in due to best efforts procedures.
