Transaction ID :

Our procedure for requesting the identification of all individuals who contribute in excess of $200 in an election cycle are as follows: 1. All solicitations by the Committee include a clear and conspicuous request for the name, address, occupation and employer of each contributor and informs the solicited person of the Act's requirements for reporting such information for each contributor who gives more than $200 in an election cycle. 2. It is the Committee's policy that for each contributor who does not provide the required information, the Committee mails a letter requesting, in a clear and conspicuous manner, the missing information, again informing the contributor of the federal requirement to report the information, including a pre-addressed envelope. The letter does not solicit additional contributions or include information on any other subject. 3. It is the Committee's policy to send these follow up letters as soon as possible after receipt of each contribution lacking the required information, but no later than 30 days after receiving the contribution. 4. When the Committee receives responses from contributors regarding their employers and occupations the Committee includes the additional information pursuant to the requirements of 11 C.F.R. 104.7.

FECFile is not calculating Election-Cycle-to-Date based on the Election identified (e.g. 2018 or 2020). Instead, FECfile assumes that all reported contributions are related to the current cycle. This will produce the appearance that donors have contributed more than they are allowed by law when this is not the case.
