The Committee is conducting a comprehensive reconstruction and reconciliation of financial records following operational transitions involving campaign staff and external consultants. During this process, the Committee identified inconsistencies and gaps in historical financial documentation and reporting records.

The Committee is undertaking a good-faith effort to review, reconcile and prepare/amend reports as necessary to ensure accuracy and completeness of all disclosures. Amendments and supplemental filings may continue as additional records are verified and reconciled.

The Committee remains committed to full compliance with all applicable Federal Election Commission reporting requirements.
